THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM APRIL 19. TO APRIL 26. 1739.

On Saturday laſt arrived here the Ship Conſtantine, EDWARD WRIGHT, Commander; in about Seven Weeks from London; by whom (from the publick Prints) we have the following Advices, viz.

The CONVENTION between the Crowns of Great Britain and Spain, concluded at Pardo on the 14*th of* January 1739, N. S.

WHEREAS Differences have ariſen, of late Years, between the two Crowns of Great Britain and Spain, on account of the Viſiting, Searching and Taking of Veſſels, the Seizing of Effects, the Regulating of Limits, and other Grievances alledged on each Side, as well in the Weſt-Indies, as elſewhere; which Differences are ſo ſerious, and of ſuch a Nature, that if Care be not taken to put an entire Stop to them for the preſent, and to prevent them for the future, they might occaſion an open Rupture between the ſaid Crowns: For this Reaſon His Majeſty the King of Great Britain, and his Majeſty the King of Spain, having nothing ſo much at Heart as to preſerve and corroborate the good Correſpondence which has ſo happily ſubſiſted, have thought proper to grant their full Powers, viz. his Britannick Majeſty to Benjamin Keene, Eſq; his Miniſter Plenipotentiary to his Catholick Majeſty, and his Catholick Majeſty to Don Sebaſtian de la Quadra, Knight of the Order of St. James, Councellor of State, and Firſt Secretary of State, and of the Diſpatches; who after previouſly producing their full Powers, having conferred together, have agreed upon the following Articles.

ARTICLE I.

Whereas the ancient Friendſhip, ſo deſirable and ſo neceſſary for the reciprocal Intereſt of both Nations, and particularly with Regard to their Commerce, cannot be eſtabliſhed upon a laſting Foundation, unleſs Care be taken, not only to adjuſt and regulate the Pretenſions for reciprocal Reparation of the Damages already ſuſtained, but above all to find out Means to prevent the like Cauſes of Complaint for the future, and to remove abſolutely and for ever, every Thing which might give Occaſion thereto; It is agreed to labour immediately, with all imaginable Application and Dilligence, to attain ſo deſirable an End; and for that purpoſe there ſhall be named on the Part of their Britannick and Catholick Majeſties reſpectively, immediately after the ſigning of the preſent Convention, two Miniſters Plenipotentiaries, who ſhall meet at Madrid within the Space of ſix Weeks, to be reckoned from the Day of the Exchange of the Ratifications, there to confer, and finally regulate the reſpective Pretenſions of the two Crowns, as well with relation to the Trade and Navigation in America and Europe, and to the Limits of Florida and of Carolina, as concerning other Points, which remain likewiſe to be adjuſted; the whole according to the Treaties of the Years 1667. 1670, 1713, 1715, 1721, 1728, and 1729, conincluding that of the Aſſiento of Negroes, and the Convention of 1716; and it is alſo agreed, that the Plenipotentiaries, ſo named, ſhall begin their Conferences ſix Weeks after the Exchange of the Ratifications, and ſhall finiſh them within the Space of eight Months.

ARTICLE II.

The Regulation of the Limits of Florida and of Carolina, which according to what has been lately agreed was to be decided by Commiſſaries on each ſide, ſhall likewiſe be committed to the ſaid Plenipotentiares, to procure a more ſolid and effectual Agreement; and during the Time that the Diſcuſſion of that Affair ſhall laſt, Things ſhall remain in the aforeſaid Territories of Florida and of Carolina in the Situation they are in at preſent, without encreaſing the Fortifications there, or taking any new Poſts; And for this purpoſe, his Britannick Majeſty and his Catholick Majeſty ſhall cauſe the neceſſary Orders to be diſpatched immediately after the ſigning of this Convention.

ARTICLE III.

After having duly conſidered the Demands and Pretenſions of the two Crowns, and of their reſpective Subjects, for Reparation of the Damages ſuſtained on each ſide, and all Circumſtances which relate to this important Affair; It is agreed, that his Catholick Majeſty ſhall cauſe to be paid to his Britannick Majeſty the Sum of Ninety Five Thouſand Pounds Sterling, for a Balance which has been admitted as due to the Crown and the Subjects of Great Britain, after Deduction made of the Demands of the Crown and Subjects of Spain; to the End that the abovementioned Sum, together with the amount of what has been acknowledged on the Part of Great Britain to be due to Spain on her Demands, may be employed by his Britannick Majeſty for the Satisfaction, Diſcharge and Payment of the Demands of his Subjects upon the Crown of Spain; It being underſtood nevertheleſs, That it ſhall not be pretended, that this reciprocal Diſcharge extends, or relates to the Accounts and Differences which ſubſiſt, or are to be ſettled between the Crown of Spain and the Company of the Aſſiento of Negroes, nor to any particular or private Contracts that may ſubſiſt between either of the two Crowns, or their Miniſters, with the Subjects of the other, or between the Subjects and Subjects of each Nation reſpectively; with Exception however of all Pretenſions of this Claſs, mentioned in the Plan preſented at Seville by the Commiſſaries of Great Britain, and included in the Account lately made out at London, of Damages ſuſtained by the Subjects of the ſaid Crown, and eſpecially the Three particulars inſerted in the ſaid Plan, and making but one Article in the Account, amounting to 119,512 Piaſters, three Reals and three Quartils of Plate; and the Subjects on each ſide ſhall be entitled, and ſhall have Liberty to have recourſe to the Laws, or to take other proper Meaſures, for cauſing the aboveſaid Engagements to be fulfilled, in the ſame Manner as if this Convention did not exiſt.

ARTICLE IV.

The Value of the Ship called the Woolball, which was taken and carried to the Port of Campechy in the Year 1732, the Loyal Charles, the Diſpatch, the George and the Prince William, which were carried to the Havana in the Year 1737, and the St. James to Porto Rico in the ſame Year, having been included in the Valuation that has been made of the Demands of the Subjects of Great Britain, as alſo ſeveral others that were taken before; If it happens, that in conſequence of the Orders that have been diſpatched by the Court of Spain for the Reſtitution of them, Part, or the Whole of them have been reſtored, the Sums ſo received ſhall be deducted from the 95000 l. Sterling, which is to be paid by the Court of Spain according to what is above ſtipulated: It being however underſtood, that the Payment of the 95000 l. Sterling ſhall not be, for that Reaſon, in any Manner delayed; ſaving that what may have been previouſly received ſhall be reſtored.

ARTICLE V.

The preſent Convention ſhall be approved and ratified by his Britannick Majeſty and by his Catholick Majeſty; and the Ratifications thereof ſhall be delivered and exchanged at London within the Space of ſix Weeks, or ſooner, if it can be done, to be reckoned from the Day of the ſigning.

In Witneſs whereof, We the underwritten Miniſters Plenipotentiaries of his Britannick Majeſty, and of his Catholick Majeſty, by Virtue of our full Powers have ſigned the preſent Convention, and cauſed the Seal of our Arms to be affixed thereto. Done at the Pardo the 14th Day of January 1739.

BENJAMIN KEENE.
SEBASTIAN de la QUADRA.

His Britannick Majeſty's full Power.

GEORGE R.

GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, Duke of Brunſwick and Lunenburg, Arch-Treaſurer of the Holy Roman Empire, and Prince Elector, &c. To all and ſingular to whom theſe Preſents ſhall come, Greeting. Whereas certain Differences have ariſen, of late Years, between Us, and our good Brother the King of Spain, concerning the Viſiting and Searching of Merchant Ships, and the Seizing of them and of their Goods and Merchandizes, the Regulation of Limits, and other Grievances alledged on each ſide, as well in the Weſt-Indies, as elſewhere, which if Care be not taken to put an End to them at preſent, and Proviſion made that the like may not happen for the future, might at length occaſion an open Rupture. And whereas we have nothing ſo much at Heart, as to take Care, by ſettling the Rights, on each Side, according to the Tenour of the Treaties, and by removing, as much as can be done, all Cauſe of Complaint for the future, to eſtabliſh and preſerve forever, the Friendſhip that has ſubſiſted between Us, and the King of Spain; and whereas the aforeſaid King of Spain, has declared, That he will willingly concert with Us the proper Meaſures for attaining ſo deſirable an End; Know ye therefore, that we repoſing ſpecial Truſt, in the Fidelity, Prudence, Integrity and Diligence of our Truſty and Well-beloved Benjamin Keene, Eſq; our Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Court of the aforeſaid Catholick King, have nominated, made, and appointed the ſaid Benjamin Keene, as We do, by theſe Preſents, nominate, make and appoint him our true, certain and undoubted Commiſſioner, Procurator and Plenipotentiary; giving and granting to him, all, and all manner of Faculty, Power and Authority, together with general as well as ſpecial Order (ſo as the general do not derogate from the ſpecial, and ſo on the contrary) to meet, treat confer and conclude for Us, and in our Name, with the Miniſter or Miniſters furniſhed with ſufficient Power on the part of Our Good Brother the Catholick King, of and upon ſuch Treaty or Treaties, Convention or Conventions, as may moſt conduce to the abovementioned purpoſes, as alſo upon Articles, whether ſecret or ſeparate; and laſtly, upon all Things which ſhall ſeem moſt proper for promoting and perfecting the ſaid Work; and in our Name to ſign, and mutually to deliver and receive what ſhall be ſo concluded and agreed, and to do and perform all other Things neceſſary to be done, in as ample Manner and Form, as We Ourſelves, were We preſent, would do and perform; engaging and promiſing on our Royal Word, that whatever ſhall be concluded by our ſaid Commiſſioner, Procurator and Plenipotentiary, We will ratify, approve and accept it all in the beſt Manner; And we will never ſuffer any Perſon to violate the ſame in the whole, or in part, or to act contrary thereto. In Witneſs and Confirmation of all which We have cauſed Our Great Seal of Great Britain to be affixed to theſe Preſents, ſigned with Our Royal Hand. Given at Our Palace at St. James's, the Ninth Day of the Month of November, in the Year of our Lord, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Thirty Eight, and of Our Reign the Twelfth.

The Remainder ſhall be inſerted in our next.

His MAJESTY's moſt Gracious SPEECH, to both Houſes of Parliament, on Thurſday the firſt Day of February, 1738,9.

My Lords and Gent'emen,

I HAVE upon all Occaſions, declared, how ſenſibly I have been affected with the many Hardſhips and Injuries ſuſtained by my Trading Subjects in America. I have the Honour of my Crown, and the true Intereſt of my People too much at Heart, to ſee either of them ſuffer any Prejudice or Diminution, without purſuing the moſt proper and advantageous Methods for their real Security and Preſervation.

Theſe Conſiderations alone were ſufficient to incite me to exert my utmoſt Power, in vindicating and protecting our undoubted Rights and Privileges of Navigation and Commerce; and nothing could add to my own Zeal in ſo juſt a Cauſe, but the due Regard I always have to the Petitions and Complaints of my Subjects, and the Advice of my Parliament. The Wiſdom and Prudence of your Reſolutions upon this great and national Concern, determined me to begin with the more moderate Meaſures, and to try, once more, what Effect and Influence my friendly Endeavours, and preſſing Inſtances would have upon the Court of Spain, towards obtaining that Satisfaction and Security, which we were intitled to demand and expect; and your Aſſurances to ſupport me in all Events, enabled me to proceed with proper Weight and Authority.

Thus ſupported by the concurrent Advice of both Houſes of Parliament, I loſt no Time in making Preparations to do myſelf and my People Juſtice, if the Conduct of the Court

Court of Spain had laid us under that Neceſſity; and at the ſame Time I did in the ſtrongeſt Manner, repeat my Inſtances for obtaining ſuch Juſtice and Reparation for the many Injuries and Loſſes already ſuſtained, and ſuch an effectual Security for the future, as might prevent the Conſequences of an open Rupture.

It is now a great Satisfaction to me, that I am able to acquaint you, that the Meaſures I have purſued, have had ſo good an Effect, that a Convention is concluded and ratified between between me and the King of Spain; whereby, upon Conſideration had of the Demands on both Sides, that Prince hath obliged himſelf to make Reparation to my Subjects for their Loſſes, by a certain ſtipulated Payment; and Plenipotentiaries are therein named and appointed, for regulating, within a limited Time, all thoſe Grievances and Abuſes, which have hitherto interrupted our Commerce and Navigation in the American Seas; and for ſettling all matters in Diſpute, in ſuch a Manner, as may for the future prevent and remove all new Cauſes and Pretences of Complaint, by a ſtrict Obſervance of our mutual Treaties, and a juſt Regard to the Rights and Privileges belonging to each other. I will order the Convention, and the ſeparate Articles to be laid before you.

It hath been My principal Care, to make Uſe of the Confidence You repoſed in Me in this critical and doubtful Conjuncture, with no other View, but the general and laſting Benefit of My Kingdoms; and if all the Ends, which are to be hoped for, even from ſucceſsful Arms, can be attained, without plunging the Nation into a War, it muſt be thought, by all reaſonable and unprejudiced Perſons, the moſt deſirable Event.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons.

I have ordered the proper Eſtimates to be prepared and laid before you, for the Service of the current Year. I heartily wiſh, that the Poſture of Affairs would have permitted Me to retrench the Publick Expences, for which I am obliged to demand the preſent Supplies: And I make no doubt, but your experienced Zeal and Affection for Me and My Government, and the proper Concern you have always ſhewn for the Publick Good, will induce you to grant Me ſuch Supplies as you ſhall find neceſſary for the Honour and Security of Me and My Kingdoms.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I cannot but earneſtly recommend it to you, not to ſuffer any Prejudices or Animoſities to have a Share in your Deliberations at this important Conjuncture, which ſeems, in a particular Manner, to call upon you to unite in carrying on ſuch Meaſures as will be moſt conducive to the true Intereſt and Advantage of My People.

ANNAPOLIS, April 15.

On Sunday laſt a Negro Fellow, who was brought into the Country laſt Year, cut the Throat of a white Child, ſtabb'd and murdered a Negro Wench, and then hang'd himſelf, near the Fork of Patuxon in this Province; the Cauſe of his Barbarities not being to be found out. He belong'd to Mr. John Penn, but was put to live with his Maſter's Brother Benjamin Penn. He was left at Home with the Child, and ſome time after the Wench went home, and ſome time after that the Family, when they found that he had dug a Hole and cut the Child's Throat over it, and let the Blood run in, afterwards buried up the Child, its Head being almoſt off. It appear'd that he had had much Strugling with the Wench, for ſhe had bled much in ſeveral Places, at laſt was knock'd on the Head with a Rail: Then after waſhing his own Shirt, he hang'd himſelf with a ſingle Strand of a Trace, which had only one Tuck in his Neck inſtead of a Knot.

Cuſtom-Houſe, New-York, April 23. Entred in.

Ratſay, Farmer, Bryant and Langdon from London, Baily from Cowes, Wadel and Tuckneſs from Honduras Bay, Woodford from Briſtol, Peyton from Madeira, Young from Turks-Iſland, Smith from Jamaica, Nevin from Barbadoes, Adderly from Antigua.

Entred out. Griffith for S. Carolina, Ware for Georgia, Bethel for Bermuda. Cleared. Pearce to Holland, Seymour to St. Chriſtophers.

PHILADELPHIA.

On Saturday laſt in the Evening Mrs. Mary Smith of Willingſtown, was found drowned with her Horſe, near the long Bridge in the Northern Liberties of this City. 'Tis ſuppos'd the Misfortune came, by her Horſe attempting to drink at that Place, where the Water is very deep. She was the next Day decently interred.

Tueſday next the General Aſſembly of this Province, are to meet by their Adjournment.

Yeſterday Morning died at Trenton, the Hon. Daniel Cox, Eſq; one of the Juſtices of the Supream Court of the Province of New-Jerſey.

We hear that Writs are iſſued for electing a new Aſſembly in the Province of New-Jerſey.

We have from Jamaica, via Rhode-Iſland, the Particulars of a Peace lately concluded between the Engliſh there, and the Rebels of the Mountains; which we may give in our next.

By the late Prints from London, we obſerve, that no Peace is expected this Year between the Germans, Turks and Ruſſians. That the Corſicans have rejected the Mediation of France, and have had a Skirmiſh with the French Troops that were on the Iſland. That much Damage has been done on the Coaſts of France and England by Storms. And that the City of London have petitioned both Houſes of Parliament againſt the Convention with Spain, which Example 'tis thought will be followed by all the Trading Corporations in England.

Cuſtom-Houſe, PHILADELPHIA, Entred Inwards.

Sloop Catherine, Duncan Murray, from Maryland.
Sloop Henry, Benjamin Dickinſon, from Bermuda.
Ship Conſtantine, Edward Wright, from London.

Entred out.

Brigt. Joſeph, James Coultas, for Madeira.

TO BE SOLD,
By JONATHAN MIFFLIN,
Oppoſite to the Poſt-Office in Market-Street, Philadelphia:

A FINE Sortment of curious Looking-Glaſſes, Ferrets, worſted Qualities, Galloon, Brade, Twiſt, ſtitching and ſewing Silk, printed Linnens, Men and Womans Horſe-whips, Ivory Combs, black Pepper, fine Wool Cards, choice flask Oyl, Madeira and Canary Wine, Rum, Sugar and Mollaſſes, Loaf Sugar, beſt Indigo, Allum, Roſin, Iron Potts and Kettles, Axes, ſmall Anchors, Frying Pans, Drinking Glaſſes, Window Glaſs, train Oyl, Gun Powder, and ſundry other Goods at the cheapeſt Rates.

MR. Robinſon's long Declamation in the laſt Mercury, requires but a ſhort Reply. There is not now the leaſt Room to doubt of the Truth of the Advertiſement publiſhed by Grinaway for her own Security. If the Fact had been falſe, Mr Robinſon would not have failed to diſprove it, by the Affidavits of Knowlman and Garland, who were ſaid to be Witneſſes to the fraudulent Conveyance in Queſtion. Nor would he have concealed the Name of his Client, for whom, as acknowledged by himſelf, he drew a Security from Grinaway on half a Sheet of Paper. The Part I had in this Affair, was agreeable to the Duty of my Profeſſion, yet Mr. Robinſon has therefore thought fit to abuſe me in the vileſt Manner.

But why ſhould I be uneaſy at the Dirt thrown on me by a Perſon who at the ſame time publickly accuſes the Courts of Judicature of Partiality, tho' the Lenity of the Magiſtrates towards him laſt Term was ſuch, that they would not proceed againſt him ex parte, even after he had run away in Contempt of the Court. But he has ſince aſſum'd new Courage, and now tells us with the Air of a Prize-Fighter, that he only deſires a clear Stage and no Favour. A Lawyer who renounces the Oratory of the Bar, and declaims in the Language of the Bear-Garden, is certainly well qualified to divert any Audience---that have a Taſte for low Farce.
